SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

BizWhys (China) and Key Risk Training Solutions are delighted to announce they have entered into a joint cooperation agreement to service the PRC conference scene. BizWhys & Key Risk will be working together to leverage their service offerings and experience to bring to our clients and all those who attend our conferences a new, dynamic and refreshing approach to the China conference market, with the addition of highly relevant topical and practical awareness training sessions that will be highly valuable and educational to all attendees.

7th Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption Compliance Asia Pacific Summit 2021

Presents our dedicated learning experience sessions

Day One Session

How Companies Can Develop and Manage Their Own Internal Investigation Capability

Day Two Session

How to Conduct Professional Standard Interviews of Suspected Wrongdoers

To enhance the learning experience each training session will feature practical examples drawn from the presenters own careers and provide attendees with comprehensive notes to aide understanding and provide a handy reference guide when you are back at the office.

Both sessions will be led by our two highly experienced subject matter presenters
